STIPULATION AND ORDER OF CONFIDENTIALITY

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the undersigned, as follows:

1. All of the discovery provided to Class Plaintiffs¹ and Class Counsel – including, without limitation, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, transcripts, microfilm, microfiche, drafts, non-identical copies of documents and data compilations (including, without limitation, electronic or computerized data complications) from which information can be obtained – and all other information provided under the terms of this Stipulation, without regard to whether the information is oral, written or electronic, and regardless of the source of the document or information, shall be deemed “Confidential Information.” All Confidential Information to which the undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his or her counsel are given access is subject to this Stipulation, and such Confidential Information shall not be used by or disclosed to anyone except as provided herein.

1. Unless otherwise specifically defined herein, the capitalized terms in this Stipulation and Order of Confidentiality (the “Stipulation”) have the same meaning as attributed to them in the Stipulation of Settlement Between Class Plaintiffs and Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. Defendants dated December 29, 2006.

2. Confidential Information shall be used solely for purposes of evaluating the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the Settlement with the Gallagher Defendants and for no other purpose. In particular, and without limitation, Confidential Information shall not be used by the undersigned Settlement Class Member (i) in the litigation of this Action, or (ii) in any other litigation, arbitration, or other jurisdiction or administrative proceeding (including in the investigation or preparation of any such proceeding). If an undersigned Settlement Class Member or his, her or its counsel cites or otherwise explicitly refers to Confidential Information in any objection or other filing that is made in this Action (including without limitation, quoting or paraphrasing Confidential Information), the portion of the filing in which the Confidential Information is set out shall be filed under seal with the Court.

3. To the extent any Settlement Class Member seeks to obtain discovery materials and such request is granted, the undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her, or its counsel, will maintain such discovery materials pursuant to the terms of this Stipulation. In any event, duplication of documents or materials containing Confidential Information shall not be permitted. However, in the course of inspecting the Confidential Information, the undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her, or its counsel shall be permitted to make handwritten notes (“Handwritten Notes”) reflecting their review of Confidential Information. Any Handwritten Notes reflecting, incorporating or otherwise referring to the Confidential Information shall be treated as and be deemed to be Confidential Information as well. The undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her, or its counsel shall be able to retain the Handwritten Notes from the review of discovery materials; provided, however, that Handwritten Notes may be used by the undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her, or its counsel for the sole purpose described in paragraph 2 above and for no other purpose.

4. Except as provided in paragraph 3 above, the undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her, or its counsel shall not make any notes, memorandum or memorialization relating to the content of Confidential Information, including recording any electronic notes on computer, electronic copying, scanning, and/or dictation equipment, or by any other means. The undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her or its counsel shall not bring recording devices or computers of any sort, including, without limitation, handheld or laptop computers or voice recorders of any type to the location where the discovery materials, will be made available (the "Document Depository"). The undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his or her counsel shall not bring any type of photographic, photocopying, camera phones or other electronic devices that allow for the electronic scanning, copying or duplication of documents, including, without limitation, dictaphones, portable photocopiers or cameras, into the Document Depository.

5. Access to Confidential Information shall be limited to:

- a. the undersigned Settlement Class Member(s);
- b. his, her, or its undersigned counsel;
- c. employees of undersigned counsel assigned to and necessary to assist such counsel in evaluating the Settlement; and

d. experts, to the extent necessary to assist the undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her, or its counsel in evaluating the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the Settlement.

6. Any Person given access to Confidential Information shall be advised, before being granted access, of the terms of this Stipulation and shall execute the Exhibit A and thereby become subject to such terms, including, without limitation, the requirement that such Confidential Information may not be disclosed to any Person other than those described in paragraph 5 above. In addition, access to Confidential Information shall not be provided to any Person described in paragraph 5 until and unless such Person has executed the undertaking in the form attached to Exhibit A. The executed undertaking shall be promptly provided to the Gallagher Defendants' Counsel at the address identified in Paragraph 13.

7. By providing access to Confidential Information, no Settling Party shall be held to have waived any claim that such Confidential Information is privileged, confidential or protected from discovery as attorney work product. The undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her, or its counsel agree that they, or any of them, shall not contend or otherwise take the position in this or in any other pending or future proceeding that any Settling Party has waived the attorney-client privilege and/or the protection of the attorney work product doctrine, or any other privilege or protective doctrine, with regard to Confidential Information.

8. The provisions of this Stipulation shall survive the termination of this Action as to the Gallagher Defendants. At the earlier of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the termination of the Settlement Agreement in this Action, all Handwritten Notes shall be destroyed. A written certification of destruction of Handwritten Notes from any Person who has been given access to Confidential Information pursuant to paragraph 5 above shall be provided to the Gallagher Defendants' Counsel.

9. The terms of this Stipulation shall be enforceable by any aggrieved party, including any Settling Party, and any breach of such terms shall give rise to any and all applicable legal and equitable remedies for enforcement of the Stipulation and/or relief, including damages, for its breach.

10. Pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order incorporating this Stipulation, any breach of the terms of this Stipulation shall constitute a violation of the Court's Order and may result in an order of contempt of court or other sanctions, upon application to the Court by any Settling Party.

11. The undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her or its counsel agree that (i) no Confidential Information disclosed pursuant to this Stipulation may be used in the litigation of this Action or any other proceeding, unless such Confidential Information is obtained independently through discovery requests made by the undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her or its counsel to the Gallagher Defendants, the Broker Defendants, the Insurer Defendants, Class Counsel or any of them or is otherwise publicly available; (ii) discovery requests seeking Confidential Information shall not be served on the Gallagher Defendants' Counsel and on Co-Lead Counsel; and (iii) the undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her or its counsel shall not make discovery requests of the Gallagher Defendants, the Broker Defendants or the Insurer Defendants, Class Plaintiffs or any of them, that make reference directly or indirectly to Confidential Information in any such request or in any proceeding. The undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her or its counsel agree further that his, her or its receipt of access to Confidential Information shall not be construed or used as an admission or concession by the Gallagher Defendants of relevance, responsiveness, discoverability or any other matter.

12. The undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her or its counsel agree to notify the Gallagher Defendants' Counsel immediately if any Person granted access to Confidential Information under this Stipulation is served with or otherwise receives a subpoena, summons, court order, request or application requiring disclosure of Confidential Information. In any such instance, the undersigned Settlement Class Member(s) and/or his, her or its counsel also agree (i) not to oppose the Gallagher Defendants' efforts to prevent the disclosure of Confidential Information and (ii) not to surrender Confidential Information to any third party without the consent of the Gallagher Defendants or except as ordered by a final order of a court having jurisdiction.

13. The notice required by paragraphs 6, 8 and 12 of this Stipulation must be provided by facsimile or overnight mail or other overnight delivery service to:

Exhibit A to Stipulation and Order of Confidentiality

UNDERTAKING

The undersigned hereby certifies that he/she understands that Confidential Information is being provided to him/her pursuant to the terms and restrictions of a Stipulation and Order of Confidentiality (the "Stipulation"), the terms of which have been incorporated into a November __, 2006 Order (the "Order") entered by the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") in the class actions captioned In re Insurance Brokerage Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1663, Civil No. 04-5184 05-1079 (FSH) (the "Action"). The undersigned also certifies that he/she has been provided with a copy of the Stipulation, has read and understands the terms of it, and agrees to be bound by all terms of it.

The undersigned acknowledges that breach of the Stipulation shall be actionable by any party to the Action, and that such breach shall subject the undersigned to any and all applicable legal and equitable remedies for enforcement of the Stipulation and/or relief, including damages, for its breach. The undersigned also acknowledges that breach of the Stipulation will violate the Order and may subject the undersigned to an order of contempt of court or other sanctions, upon application to the Court by any Settling Party. The undersigned hereby subjects himself/herself to the jurisdiction of the Court for purposes of enforcement of the Stipulation and/or the Order.
